More than 500 participants came to the University of Economic in Prague to participate the special open lecture, which was organized by International Movement Youth Time and student organization iKnow Club on the theme Questions to Tomio Okamura. The lecture was hosted by the famous Czech businessman and politician Mr. Tomio Okamura. The lecture focused on the theme "Way to success" and questions to Mr. Okamura were possible to post also on the Facebook page. One of the most interesting questions was: "How much the education influenced your life and your career? What was your feeling, when you earned a first million Czech crown? How old were you? " and much more.

Lecture participants had unique opportunity to meet our host and asked their question. The discussion was very fruitful and interesting. All participants were given by YT info materials.

Lecture was recorded (photos, videos and interview will be available soon).
